Healing Our Wounded Freedoms: The Prescription of a Martyr ...

Freedom is the primary principle the Founding Fathers sought to protect through the establishment of the U.S. Constitution 225 years ago. Now a little more than 2 centuries later our freedoms are diminishing. They are being taken and cast away by those who seek only for power. In other words OUR FREEDOMS ARE WOUNDED.

In my last article, The Wounded Healer, Part I, I contemplated how the wounded healer is one of the major underlying, archetypal processes giving shape to and in-forming events in our world today, both individually and collectively. I point out how our wounding is a numinous event that can potentially introduce and initiate us into a deeper level of our being.
