Nothing Great Was Ever Achieved

I just don't think that football has the patience anymore. Let's say you win PL this year, then come a distant second next year, and then enter a transition with a couple of signings not working out and a couple of players being poached by Madrid or Barca or whatever - not a given, but go with me.

Consumerism is a social and economic order that encourages the acquisition of goods and services in ever-increasing amounts. With the industrial revolution, but particularly in the 20th century, mass production led to an economic crisis: there was overproduction—the supply of goods would grow beyond consumer demand, and so manufacturers turned to planned obsolescence and advertising to ...

This poem is often read at funerals. The author, Henry Scott-Holland (1847 - 1918), a priest at St. Paul's Cathedral of London, did not intend it as a poem, it was actually delivered as part of a sermon in 1910. The sermon, titled, Death the King of Terrors was preached while the body of King Edward VII was lying in state at Westminster.
